Putting Humor to Work for Less Stress and More Success

Laugh as you learn what makes for a truly inspiring workplace with best-selling author and award-winning international speaker Michael Kerr. In this high-energy, humour-filled presentation, you'll discover why laughter really is the best medicine when it comes to creating a great place to work. You'll learn the 3 R's of using humour to manage stress, and discover why humor is one of the most powerful ways to boost workplace morale, communicate more effectively and spark creative thinking.

About Michael Kerr . . .

Michael Kerr is an award-winning speaker who is known as one of North America's leading authorities on how to create more inspiring workplaces. His company, Humor at Work, has helped hundreds of clients from around the world create more positive and productive workplaces. In 2008, Michael was inducted into the Canadian Speakers' Hall of Fame.

His books include "Putting Humour to Work," "Inspiring Workplaces," "What's So Funny About Alberta?" and "When Do You let the Animals Out?"

Michael lives in beautiful Canmore, Alberta, so yes, he is a very much live version of "Mike from Canmore."
